IMPROVEMENT OF THE CONDITION OF WOMEN.
We, the subscribers, merchants, masters and employers, residing in the City of New-York, in view of the hard labor and treatment of Women employed in early labor in various branches of manufacture, appeal to the sympathy of the public, and the justice of employers, to effect an alleviation of their burdens.

The average time for labor for female operatives employed in the city is 10 hours a day, and the weekly wages do not average one dollar.

The reform we advocate is simply to reduce the time to 9 hours for the Winter season; and we do this confidently holoring that this diminution in the period of labor would not affect the interests of employers injuriously, while it would add immeasurably to the comfort and health of the employed. We submit, then, to the hearts of the employers, and to their sense of justice to begin this reform at once, and cordially invite our coadjutors in all employments of female operatives, soliciting their adherence at the Rev. E. H. Chapin's Church on TUES-DAY EVENING NEXT, Oct. 26, at 7 o'clock.
